

Salary Navigator HR Roles

Foreword

In today's dynamic business environment, understanding the latest salary trends in Human Resources is essential for both organizations and HR professionals. This Salary Navigator by Corenza provides up-to-date compensation benchmarks across various industries, company sizes, and experience levels. It covers key HR roles, enabling companies to build competitive pay structures and HR talent to gauge their career growth effectively.

This report offers valuable insights drawn from manufacturing, services, financial sectors, and startups, helping to bridge the gap between market realities and HR compensation practices. The data presented in this report has been sourced from reputable platforms including Naukri, Ambition Box, Glassdoor, Internshala and 6figure complemented by Corenza's own market estimates. We advise the readers to do their own research before taking any action.
